

DIRECT IMPACT 40 MM SPONGE ROUND EXTENDED RANGE

BRAND: DEFENSE TECHNOLOGY

The 40 mm Direct Impact® LE Extended Range Round is a point-of-aim, point-of-impact direct-fire round and is intended to be used in applications that exceed the performance capability of the standard Direct Impact Round. An excellent solution whether you need to incapacitate a single subject or control a crowd. When loaded with chemical agent, the Direct Impact LE combines blunt trauma with the effects of an irritant powder, maximizing the potential for incapacitation. This round travel at a velocity of 355 ft/second with an effective range of 33 ft - 233 ft.
